

CHAMPION THE LEADER WITHIN

MAY 8

Hi [Your Boss's Name],

I wanted to ask for your support in attending Leadercast Springfield 2026, an upcoming leadership event focused on practical skills like communication and team development.

Leadercast is an annual event that brings together local leaders to learn from respected speakers who share real-world insights that can be applied immediately in the workplace. I believe the content would be valuable for my growth as a leader and would directly benefit our team through improved leadership, collaboration, and fresh ideas I can bring back and implement.

The conference takes place on Friday, May 8 from 8am-1pm in Springfield.

Thank you for considering this request. I'd love the opportunity to discuss it further if you have any questions.

Best regards,
[Your Name]
